California Women's List Endorses Marggie Castellano for Senate

Los Angeles -- Today, California Women's List (CWL) announced their endorsement of Marggie Castellano for Senate District 36. Castellano is a progressive leader who has exactly what it takes to address disparities affecting women and children in her local community and at the state level.

"I am pleased to be endorsed by California Women's List," said Castellano. "In California, it's critical we continue to be on the cutting edge of environmental justice and that requires safeguarding women and children who immensely suffer from the effects of climate change. As Senator, I will will fight for women and children across issue areas."

"Marggie has been a tireless advocate for women and our right to choose. She is dedicated to ensuring that all women have safe, affordable and access to all reproductive health care choices. Marggie has always been 100% pro-choice, never changing her position or commitment to the issue. Our organization is excited to support a candidate who will endlessly work to defend women's rights," said Lauren Russell, board member of California's Women's List."

California Women's List is a Political Action Committee dedicated to fundraising for, supporting, and electing pro-choice, Democratic women to office in California. California Women's List is building a future of equal representation for women in our state government. California Women's List is committed to giving their endorsed candidates financial support, in addition to the tools that they need to fundraise and win in California.

To support the mission of equal representation in California government, California Women's List envisions empowering and organizing a robust network of donors who are actively engaged in fundraising and supporting pro-choice, Democratic, female candidates for office in California.
