California Women's List Endorses Ann Ravel for Senate District 15

Los Angeles -- California Women's List (CWL) is proud to announce their endorsement of Ann Ravel for Senate District 15.

"Earning the support and endorsement of California Women's List means a lot to me and to my campaign," said Ann Ravel. "It is encouraging that women have come together, recognizing the dearth of women in public office and the difficulty of breaking through as a woman candidate, to provide the support needed to succeed and make a difference for our state."

"Ann Ravel has a long history of public service. She has worked to ensure fairness for women in the workplace and has been a tireless advocate for women and families throughout her career. From her time as Chair of the Fair Political Practices Commission to her work in President Barack Obama's Administration as Chair of the Federal Election Commission, Ann has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to tackling women issues. She will do the same as a California Senator." said Elise Weinberg, Vice President of California Women's List.

California Women's List is a Political Action Committee dedicated to fundraising for, supporting, and electing pro-choice, Democratic women to office in California. California Women's List is building a future of equal representation for women in our state government. California Women's List is committed to giving their endorsed candidates financial support, in addition to the tools that they need to fundraise and win in California.

To support the mission of equal representation in California government, California Women's List envisions empowering and organizing a robust network of donors who are actively engaged in fundraising and supporting pro-choice, Democratic, female candidates for office in California.
