California Women's List Endorses Dawn Addis for Assembly District 33

Los Angeles -- In December 2019, California Women's List (CWL) was proud to announce their endorsement of Dawn Addis for Assembly District 33.

"I am incredibly honored to join a phenomenal group of women who are endorsed by California Women's List," said Addis. "I believe in the power of everyday women to create real and lasting change, and California Women's List exemplifies just that. I look forward to our continued work together."

"Dawn Addis is a mother, a public educator, and a community organizer who uses her experiences to guide her positions. As a city council member, she has advocated for increased housing, clean water security, improved infrastructure, local jobs, and economic development. She will be a perfect advocate for Assembly District 35," said Emily Zahn, Board President of the California Women's List.

California Women's List is a Political Action Committee dedicated to fundraising for, supporting, and electing pro-choice, Democratic women to office in California. California Women's List is building a future of equal representation for women in our state government. California Women's List is committed to giving their endorsed candidates financial support, in addition to the tools that they need to fundraise and win in California.

To support the mission of equal representation in California government, California Women's List envisions empowering and organizing a robust network of donors who are actively engaged in fundraising and supporting pro-choice, Democratic, female candidates for office in California.
