California Women's List Endorses Melissa Fox for Assembly District 68

Los Angeles -- In December 2019, California Women's List (CWL) was proud to announce their endorsement of Melissa Fox for Assembly District 68.

"I am honored to have the support of the California Women's list," said Fox. "Their support is a testament to my record on the issues that matter most to women. In the legislature, I will fight for equal pay for equal work, paid family leave, early childhood education, against sexual harassment and domestic violence, and for full reproductive health services and freedoms. It is time to bring more women leaders to Sacramento."

"Fox understands the pressing issues women are facing across California. Once elected to the Assembly, Fox will fight for pay equity and affordable child care. Fox worked to create more child care opportunities in Irvine, where she serves on the City Council. California Women's List looks forward to Fox tackling these important issues for Californians statewide," said Simi Sardana, Board Member of the California Women's List.

California Women's List is a Political Action Committee dedicated to fundraising for, supporting, and electing pro-choice, Democratic women to office in California. California Women's List is building a future of equal representation for women in our state government. California Women's List is committed to giving their endorsed candidates financial support, in addition to the tools that they need to fundraise and win in California.

To support the mission of equal representation in California government, California Women's List envisions empowering and organizing a robust network of donors who are actively engaged in fundraising and supporting pro-choice, Democratic, female candidates for office in California.
